

Fog Causes Two Accidents

MIDWAY—Two accidents occurred just minutes apart on Midway Lane Thursday, Jan. 31, 1985 which sent four youth to the hospital for treatment of minor injuries.

According to the report filed by Officer Paul Brown, Utah Highway Patrol, the accidents occurred at approximately 5:49 p.m. shortly after the sun had set.

The first accident happened when Richard Watson of Midway, driving a 1972 Ford, slowed down in dense fog near the river bridge, and was struck by a second car, a 1983 Oldsmobile driven by, Adalee B. Muse of Midway, when Muse apparently didn't see the Watson car slowing down.

The third vehicle, came into the fog, the driver, Clay J. Gustin, saw the two vehicles which had pulled to the side of the road, and assumed they were on the road, and over corrected, which caused the 1976 Ford Bronco to roll, onto the top.

Injured in the accident were Tony Erickson, Russell McLachlin of Heber City, and Layne G. Mathin of Midway. The Wasatch Ambulance volunteers took the driver and 3 passengers of the Bronco, to the hospital where they were treated and released with minor injuries.

There were no other injuries in the other accident. Estimated damage to the vehicles, is over $2400.00.
